Dear James,

I'm not known to you,
but as you are probably very well aware of, you are known to the world. Tonight, as I just learned via a news broadcast, a part of the tremendous fight you are helping to wage has been won. I can't help but think now that much of the blind hate and ignorance which has already caused much grief in our small world will soon be settling on you. I pray that you will continue to carry yourself with a dignity worthy of your convictions —

In my mind you are helping to make possible that day when all men will be able to walk the earth with dignity — Good luck

James Meredith.

yours truly
Richard Panelianco
